

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is just wrong and not in the American political spirit of fairness.

The Bush campaign attempts to distance themselves from this clearly partisan effort, yet their influence shows through.

Never before have our freedoms and privledges been challenged by such a single minded group of right wing extremists.

To call this program a news piece is a lie and distortion and must be stopped.

It is not legal, fair, or American in any way.
